beadle.c@outlook.com // 07557 799 599

I am an intelligent and ambitious person, with a logical mind and a talent for problem-solving. I have excellent technical skills, with both hobbyist and academic programming experience, and I am also a very competent writer. In hospitality, I have shown my ability to improve the efficiency and flow of the work environment, as well as being a reliable and responsible member of the team. I am seeking an opportunity to utilise my skills and learn on the job, as I am eager to start a career in the computing industry.
